The first entrance exam in Drawing for applicants to the following programs:
B073 – Architecture,
B031 – Fashion, Design.

The drawing subject is the capital of an ancient Greek order.

Exam duration: 4 hours.

The drawing must be completed on A3 format using lines and shading while following specific rules and drawing techniques.

The applicant must have: pencils of varying hardness.

The drawing of the capital must meet the following requirements:
1. Proper compositional placement on the sheet.
2. Accurate linear-perspective representation of the capital.
3. Correct structural construction of the capital.
4. Proper proportional relationships of the capital.
5. Shading of light and shadow to emphasize the volume of the object.

Passing scores: minimum – 5, maximum – 50.